Tustin Community Preschool Standards of Conduct Policy For Working Parents

1W

Tustin Community Preschool (TCP) has established certain standards of conduct in order to protect its mission, property, business interests, students and their families and employees. This policy applies to all TCP families with children enrolled at TCP.

TCP takes pride in its families and in the manner in which they conduct themselves while at TCP. We rely on individual good judgment and a sense of responsibility. Families are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate and professional manner at all times while at TCP. While TCP reserves its right to terminate any family's enrollment at will, the following list includes, but is not limited to, examples of violations of TCP Standards of Conduct which might subject a family to immediate termination of enrollment.

1. Releasing confidential information obtained, developed or produced by TCP and its employees, information supplied by outside consultants or vendors for the benefit of TCP, and information about TCP students or their families.
2. Failing to prepare and maintain records in a manner that is consistent with all applicable TCP policies to include falsification of TCP documents or any other document.
3. Using resources inappropriately including office supplies, production equipment, and other products for personal reasons other than to perform work on behalf of TCP.
4. Conviction of a felony.
5. Theft of any kind.

9. Disorderly conduct on TCP property, including, but not limited to threatening, intimidating, coercing, harassing or physically assaulting TCP personnel, students or their families, or visitors.
10. Possession of weapons or firearms on TCP property.
11. Soliciting contributions, accepting donations or support of any amount in kind from customers, visitors, salespersons, vendors or supplier representatives without express consent of the Board.
12. Insubordination, the refusal to obey a legitimate directive from the designated TCP supervisor.

California law REQUIRES certain persons to report known or suspected child abuse. As a licensee or an employee at a licensed facility or a child care institution, YOU are one of those persons - a "mandated reporter."

PERSONS WHO ARE REQUIRED TO REPORT ABUSE

Mandated reporters include a licensee, an administrator, or an employee of a licensed community care or child day care facility. WHEN REPORTING ABUSE IS REQUIRED

A mandated reporter, who in his or her professional capacity, or within the scope of his or her employment, has knowledge of or observes a person under the age of 18 years whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect must report the suspected incident. The reporter must contact a designated agency immediately or as soon as practically possible by telephone, and shall prepare and send a written report within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. [PC § 11166(a)]

IMMUNITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY OF REPORTER AND OF ABUSE REPORTS

Persons legally mandated to report suspected child abuse have immunity from criminal or civil liability for reporting as required or authorized by law. Working Parent's Vaccination Requirements

What is Required by the State:

SB 792 requires all child care facilities to maintain vaccination records for their employees and volunteers for influenza, pertussis, and measles.

Parents can be vaccinated a variety of ways:

- Contact their primary care physician
- Contact their local health department:
<https://www.cdph.ca.gov/Programs/CID/DCDC/Pages/Immunization/Local-Health-Department.aspx#>
- Find private providers offering vaccines to the public:
<http://www.vaccines.gov/getting/where/>

Vaccinations Required:

Influenza

Parents must show proof of Influenza vaccine every school year. Flu viruses change each year, which is why an annual vaccine is required. The vaccine is usually available in the fall, and early vaccination is recommended in order to prevent the spread of the flu. Parents will need to show that they have been vaccinated between August 1 and December 1 of each year. Opting out: Parents may decline to receive the influenza vaccine.

Parents must provide a copy of ONE of the following records showing they have received the Influenza vaccine:

- A copy of an immunization record for influenza dated between August 1 and December 1 of each year
- A statement from the employee's physician that there is a medical reason not to vaccinate the employee
- A statement from the employee's physician that the employee is already immune to

influenza

- A signed statement from the employee stating that they have declined to be vaccinated against the flu (see form 5W)

Pertussis (Whooping Cough)

Parents must provide a copy of ONE of the following records showing they have received the Pertussis vaccine:

- A copy of an immunization record for pertussis
- A statement from the employee's physician that there is a medical reason not to vaccinate the employee
- A statement from the employee's physician that the employee is already immune to pertussis

Measles

Parents must provide a copy of ONE of the following records showing they have received the measles vaccine:

- A copy of an immunization record for measles
- A statement from the employee's physician that there is a medical reason not to vaccinate the employee
- A statement from the employee's physician that the employee is already immune to measles
- Proof that the employee was born before 1957 (according to the Advisory Council on Immunization Practices, "adults born before 1957 are generally considered immune to measles and mumps.")

Please include your required immunization documentation when you return your completed enrollment packet. Thank you!

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act (P.L. 93-579) and the Information Practices Act of 1977 (Civil Code section 1798 et seq.), notice is given for the request of the Social Security Number (SSN) on this form. The California Department of Justice uses a person's SSN as an identifying number. The requested SSN is voluntary. Failure to provide the SSN may delay the processing of this form and the criminal record check.

In order to be licensed, work at, or be present at, a licensed facility/organization, the law requires that you complete a criminal background check. (Health and Safety Code sections 1522, 1568.09, 1569.17 and 1596.871). The Department will create a file concerning your criminal background check that will contain certain documents, including information that you provide. You have the right to access certain records containing your personal information maintained by the Department (Civil Code section 1798 et seq.). Under the California Public Records Act, the Department may have to provide copies of some of the records in the file to members of the public who ask for them, including newspaper and television reporters.

NOTE: IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Department is required to tell people who ask, including the press, if someone in a licensed facility/organization has a criminal record exemption. The Department must also tell people who ask the name of a licensed facility/organization that has a licensee, employee, resident, or other person with a criminal record exemption.

If you have any questions about this form, please contact your local licensing regional office.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

CAREGIVER BACKGROUND CHECK PROCESS CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES

The California Department of Social Services works to protect the safety of children in child care by licensing child care centers and family child care homes. Our highest priority is to be sure that children are in safe and healthy child care settings. California law requires a background check for any adult who owns, lives in, or works in a licensed child care home or center. Each of these adults must submit fingerprints so that a background check can be done to see if they have any history of crime. If we find that a person has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or a marijuana-related offense covered by the marijuana reform legislation codified at Health and Safety Code sections 11361.5 and 11361.7, he/she cannot work or live in the licensed child care home or center unless approved by the Department. This approval is called an exemption.

A person convicted of a crime such as murder, rape, torture, kidnapping, crimes of sexual violence or molestation against children cannot by law be given an exemption that would allow them to own, live in or work in a licensed child care home or center. If the crime was a felony or a serious misdemeanor, the person must leave the facility while the request is being reviewed. If the crime is less serious, he/she may be allowed to remain in the licensed child care home or center while the exemption request is being reviewed.

How the Exemption Request is Reviewed

We request information from police departments, the FBI and the courts about the person's record. We consider the type of crime, how many crimes there were, how long ago the crime happened and whether the person has been honest in what they told us.

The person who needs the exemption must provide information about:

- The crime
- What they have done to change their life and obey the law
- Whether they are working, going to school, or receiving training
- Whether they have successfully completed a counseling or rehabilitation program

The person also gives us reference letters from people who aren't related to them who know about their history and their life now.

We look at all these things very carefully in making our decision on exemptions. By law this information cannot be shared with the public.

How to Obtain More Information

As a parent or authorized representative of a child in licensed child care, you have the right to ask the licensed child care home or center whether anyone working or living there has an exemption. If you request this information, and there is a person with an exemption, the child care home or center must tell you the person's name and how he or she is involved with the home or center and give you the name, address, and telephone number of the local licensing office. You may also get the person's name by contacting the local licensing office. You may find the address and phone number on our website. The website address is <http://cld.ca.gov/contact.htm>.

CRIMINAL RECORD STATEMENT & OUT-OF-STATE DISCLOSURE

State law requires that persons associated with licensed care facilities, Home Care Aide Registry or TrustLine Registry applicants be fingerprinted and disclose any conviction. A conviction is any plea of guilty or nolo contendere (no contest) or a verdict of guilty. The fingerprints will be used to obtain a copy of any criminal history you may have.

Have you ever been convicted of a crime in California?

YES NO

You do not need to disclose any marijuana-related offenses covered by the marijuana reform legislation codified at Health and Safety Code sections 11361.5 and 11361.7.

Have you ever been convicted of a crime from another state, federal court, military, or jurisdiction outside of U.S.?

YES NO

You do not need to disclose convictions that were a result of one's status as a victim of human trafficking and that were dismissed pursuant to Penal Code Section 1203.49, nor any marijuana-related offenses covered by the marijuana reform legislation codified at Health and Safety Code sections 11361.5 and 11361.7. However, you are required to disclose convictions that were dismissed pursuant to Penal Code Section 1203.4(a).

Criminal convictions from another State or Federal court are considered the same as criminal convictions in California.

For Children's Residential Facilities, not including Foster Family Agency Staff, Youth Homelessness Prevention Centers, Private Alternative Boarding Schools, Private Alternative Outdoor Program, or Crisis Nurseries:

Have you lived in a state other than California within the last five years?

YES NO

If yes, list each state below and then complete an LIC 198B for each state:

You must check yes to the corresponding question(s) above to report every conviction (including reckless and drunk driving convictions), you have on your record even if:

- It happened a long time ago;
- It was only a misdemeanor;
- You didn't have to go to court (your attorney went for you);
- You had no jail time, or the sentence was only a fine or probation;
- You received a certificate of rehabilitation; or
- The conviction was later dismissed, set aside or the sentence was suspended.

NOTE: IF THE CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK REVEALS ANY CONVICTION(S) THAT YOU DID NOT REPORT ON THIS FORM BY CHECKING YES, YOUR FAILURE TO DISCLOSE THE CONVICTION(S) MAY RESULT IN AN EXEMPTION DENIAL, APPLICATION DENIAL, LICENSE REVOCATION, DECERTIFICATION, RESCISSION OF APPROVAL, OR EXCLUSION FROM A LICENSED FACILITY, CERTIFIED FAMILY HOME, OR THE HOME OF A RESOURCE FAMILY.

Possible Disclosure of Personal Information. In order to be licensed, work at, or be present at, a licensed facility/organization, or be placed on a registry administered by the Department, the law requires that you complete a criminal background check. (Health and Safety Code sections 1522, 1568.09, 1569.17 and 1596.871). The Department will create a file concerning your criminal background check that will contain certain documents, including personal information that you provide. You have the right to access certain records containing your personal information maintained by the Department (Civil Code section 1798 et seq.).

Under the California Public Records Act (Government Code section 6250 et seq.), the Department may have to provide copies of some of the records in the file to members of the public who ask for them, including newspaper and television reporters.

NOTE: IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Department is required to tell people who ask, including the press, if someone in a licensed facility/organization has a criminal record exemption. The Department must also tell people who ask the name of a licensed facility/organization that has a licensee, employee, resident, or other person with a criminal record exemption. This does not apply to Resource Family Homes, Small Family Child Care Homes, or the Home Care Aide Registry. The Department shall not release any information regarding Home Care Aides in response to a Public Records Act request, other than their Home Care Aide number.

The information you provide may also be disclosed in the following circumstances:

Applicant Notification and Record Challenge

Your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI. You have the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information contained in the FBI identification record. The procedure for obtaining a change, correction, or updating an FBI identification record are set forth in Title 28, CFR, 16.34. You can find additional information on the FBI website at <https://www.fbi.gov/aboutus/cjis/background-checks>.

Federal Privacy Act Statement

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification¹ that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- You must be provided, and acknowledge receipt of, an adequate Privacy Act Statement when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement should explain the authority for collecting your information and how your information will be used, retained, and shared.²
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the employment, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.³

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.⁴

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks>.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.) You can find additional information on the FBI website at <https://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks>.
